

Defendant Ricoh Company, Ltd. (“Rico”) submits the attached Proposed Final Judgment. In accordance with the Court’s direction, Rico met and conferred with counsel for Plaintiff Eastman Kodak Company (“Kodak”) regarding the form of judgment but was unable to reach agreement with Kodak. Rico’s form of judgment references the underlying order, verdict, and stipulation and sufficiently incorporates the operative rulings and agreements. Kodak’s proposed form of judgment, in contrast, needlessly attempts to rephrase and re-characterize both the Court’s prior rulings and the parties’ stipulation (each of which is plain on its face), introducing extraneous, confusing, and unnecessary content and detail. Rico respectfully requests that the Court adopt Rico’s Proposed Final Judgment.
